THE WEEK IN REVIEW

COMMUNITY ORGANIZING

Youth in Community Organizing have continued helping with outreach with different vaccine clinics sites in the Great Boston Area. This week, each youth is playing a vital role in the Lynn vaccine clinic hosted by ALPHA by canvassing, making phone calls, and printing out flyers and materials at the office. They are also starting to prepare themselves to help out with the vaccine clinics in August.

FUNDRAISING

Students in fundraising are working hard to create project plans for the event. These plans will serve as outlines for all of the tasks that need to be completed In order to host a successful event. They are doing this in order to learn successful preparation skills and learn how to efficiently work In a group. They have all been working extremely hard and have been very successful In their task thus far.

LEGAL OFFICE WORK

The past week the youth have been getting adjusted to office work by answering phones, receiving training in legal forms, and citizens' hands-on training.next week legal is having two visitors, one from the United States citizenship and immigration office and the other one from the Office of the Attorney General Maura Healey to teach the youth about the process and for them to share their experiences. Also, there Is an upcoming legal clinic.
